Strapko Recorders Announces New Ringtone Division

Chicago, IL (PRWEB) June 09, 2009 --Strapko Recorders has announced a new division dedicated to creating unique voicetones and ringtones. Called All Mobile, the initial offerings feature male and group voicetones.

"We found that people wanted something different, something unique in their ringtones," according to Bruno Strapko, President of Strapko Recorders. "Plenty of hard core mobile device users have their favorite music as ringtones. So we decided this was a great way to provide unique, made-for-ringtone content that can put a smile on your face and make the user unique as well."

"Voice Tones With An Attitude", the first release, has 71 tracks with an announcer and amusing impersonations of personalities we all know. Irish, Italian, and Indian impersonations featured next to a Little Robot Talker and Gramps. "Group Tones With An Attitude" is the second release and it has 30 tracks. The group calls to say "Let's Talk Sports", an excited "It's Party Time", and much more.

All Mobile tones are available in many places that ringtones are sold. For more information, go to <http://www.getallmobile.com>.
